Regis Manor School Toilet Refurbishment

The Regis Manor School toilet refurbishment project was carried out during the school summer holidays. The works entailed the refurbishment of the year R girls toilets, which consisted of a full strip out. This also included the removal of all sanitary ware, tiling, cubicles, flooring and lighting. New plumbing was installed to each toilet and wash basin. To enhance the final look, rear duct panelling and a vanity unit was installed. The area received a new suspended ceiling with LED lighting, new cubicles, sanitary ware and anti slip flooring was installed. The final touch was to decorate the whole area.

The school was extremley please with the final results.
