Chatham Residential Property

We installed a new contempory kitchen to this Chatham residential property. The previous layout was not conducive to the client's modern lifestyle. The kitchen and dining room were previously separate. The works involved demolishing the partition between them to create one larger room. The new room was completely stripped out of all units, worktops and vinyl flooring. Additionally the boiler was relocated to the utility room prior to walls being re-plastered. Installation of a new modern kitchen with worktops, breakfast bar and gloss door fasias followed.
