New Family Bathroom

This new family bathroom project was slightly different from a standard bathroom renovation. This was due to the removal of an existing dividing wall and the required alterations to the water and waste supplies. Working closely with the client we produced a drawing showing the proposed layout and sourced the right materials that fulfilled their needs. The finished article has the feel of a luxury hotel bathroom which is due to the high quality of products installed and clients choices of finishes.

The client ‘loves the new bathroom’ and is looking forward to improving other rooms within their property.
